Music News- Mr. Maher

The RI Philharmonic Orchestra & Music School has been working hard these last few weeks – conferring with other Link Up partners across the country, working with local Music Educators, Film Makers, and our Musicians and Conductor, and more – and are so excited to let you know that we will soon be sharing a “Virtual” Link Up experience with your 4th grade students!

In the first week of June, you will be receiving a link to an unlisted YouTube video with a truncated version of The Orchestra Rocks. The video will prominently feature narrations and music-making by our Conductor and Artistic Advisor, Bramwell Tovey, individual musicians from our orchestra to play along with students, music slides, a singer/vocal model and a recorder model.

The video will be under 45 minutes in length and will include the following repertoire:

- Ode to Joy
- Trash Team Planet
- In the Field Stood a Birch Tree
- Mars
- The Anvil Chorus

The orchestra musicians will be playing the melody/recorder star parts for the student play-along pieces using the same click track from Carnegie that students have practiced with. We hope this will ensure accessibility for students.

You can view all music, slides and click tracks for all pieces HERE. Please remember when preparing for Trash Team Planet that students enter the piece after 49 minutes of rest (with a rallentando around 1:20 in the MP3 and students enter at 1:35). So, keep practicing!
